Introduction

My immigrant ancestor John Archerd settled in Mason County, Kentucky, United States of America in the late 1700's. (fn. 1) Later he moved north across the Ohio River and purchased property near New Richmond, Ohio. He died in 1838 and was buried at Monroe Presbyterian Cemetery in Clermont County, Ohio. (fn. 2) Family folklore claims that John's parents were Thomas Archerd and Jane Russell of Somerset, England. (fn. 3)

From the early 1990's until the advent of widespread Y-DNA testing and autosomal DNA testing in 2013, I tried to search for the Archerd surname in the over 500 Church of England parishes in Somerset, as well as in the many non-conformist parishes in Somerset. I was unable to find any baptism record for John Archerd or any marriage record for Thomas Archerd and Jane Russell.

In 2013 I took a Y-DNA test (at that time called "next generation sequencing") and by 2016 I learned that an Australian man with the surname of Willey matched my Y-DNA at a fairly recent mutation called I-FGC10448. Willey's ancestors were from Drayton Parish in Somerset. In 2018 I learned that I had an autosomal DNA match with a man with the surname of Satherley. (fn. 4) He resided in Nelson, New Zealand and his ancestors were from Kingsbury Episcopi Parish in Somerset. Drayton and Kingsbury Episcopi parishes adjoin each other. This coincidence led me to look for information about the Willey surname in these parishes.

I discovered the last Will and Testament of Thomas Willey (yeoman from Middle Lambrook in Kingsbury Episcopi). He made his Will and a Codicil in August 1800. The Will included a legacy for his son “John Willey (now in America)” payable if John would return to England.

In order to prove that John Willey and John Archerd were the same person, the Y-DNA of a descendant of John Willey’s brother Thomas agreed to test for the presence of Y-DNA mutations I-FGC10448 and I-FGC10444 at the German laboratory YSEQ. Positive test results were obtained, proving that John Willey was the same person as John Archerd. (fn. 5)

Y-DNA mutations of living persons can be imputed to their male ancestors.

There are currently six Archerd men who have tested their Y-DNA and know that they have the I-FGC10444 mutation.

Middle Lambrook Meeting

Thomas Willey, yeoman of Middle Lambrook (died in 1800) was an elder of the Middle Lambrook Meeting, a nonconformist Presbyterian congregation.

“We have no exact record [of] where our forefathers met before the [Middle Lambrook Meeting} chapel was built, but we do know who the first minister was. Thomas Budd was appointed Minister at Kingsbury in 1646 and held an organised meeting at Lambrook in a private house . . . ; while living in his farmhouse at Burrow he formed a congregation of about 30 members . . . ‘ Mr. Budd kept the Register of Christenings and Marriages . . . ; our own Register dates from 1681 . . . .” (fn. 6)

Construction of a Meeting House in Middle Lambrook began in 1727 on land on the east side of the orchard formerly owned by Edmund Mead, and was completed in 1729 (the date on the front wall of the Meeting House). The land was formerly part of “ye Manore of Middle Lambrook,” under which Mead held it by a yet undiscovered lease arrangement. At some point he sold his rights to William Glanfield and Glanfield in turn transferred them in 1727 to the Meeting House elders. (fn. 6)

“A Register of Lambrook Meeting is lost from 1697 to 1800, a period of 103 years. (fn. 7) Prior to 1754, members of Middle Lambrook Meeting could have been married by their own minister or in a Church of England parish. The Clandestine Marriages Act of 1753 (aka Lord Hardwick’s Marriage Act) [26 Geo II c. 33], effective on March 25, 1754, made it mandatory that marriages be conducted in a Church of England Parish.

Thomas Willy of Middle Lambrook

Key Records

On August 7 and 8, 1800 “Thomas Willy of Middle Lambrook in the Parish of Kingsbury Episcopi, Somerset, yeoman” made his last Will & Testament, with a Codicil. (fn. 1) [See the transcription in the Appendix.]

The image shows a handwritten document in cursive script. The name 'Thomas Willy' is written in large, bold letters at the top. Below it, the text reads: 'of Middle Lambrook in the Parish of Kingsbury Episcopi in the County of Somerset Yeoman Do make my last will and Testament as follows first all the right and undivided and remainder of my freehold Estate Lands Tenements and Tenements with the Appurtenances I do give and bequeath unto the above-named John Willy and his heirs male forever'. The handwriting is somewhat faded and the ink is dark.

The 1782 Will of gentleman Edward England established a trust for the support of ministers of the society of Presbyterian dissenters who often met at the Middle Lambrook Meeting House. Among the trustees were Thomas Willy of Middle Lambrook and his son Ambrose. (fn. 2)

William Gifford of Middle Lambrook made his last Will & Testament in 1781 and later added several Codicils. Thomas Willy and Jane Willy were witnesses to the third Codicil made in 1785. (fn. 3) This is the only record showing Thomas and his wife Jane together. A 1911 family history claims she was Jane Russell (fn. 4)

Another Thomas Willy

A gentleman named Thomas Willy and his wife Jane lived in East Lambrook Manor (located in Kingsbury Episcopi Parish). In the Manorial records he was sometimes called “Thomas Willy the younger” and this seems to mean that he was younger in age than Thomas Willy of Middle Lambrook. Gentleman Thomas was born in 1737 to Robert Willy. Gentleman Thomas made his last Will & Testament in 1789. He died in 1797; his wife was Jane Baker and she died in 1809. The records for gentleman Thomas and his wife and children are found in Church of England parish records of Kingsbury Episcopi.

Almost all researchers with trees on Ancestry.com seem to have mixed up the two Thomas Willy's and their wives Jane, perhaps wishing to be descended from the CofE gentleman rather than from the Presbyterian yeoman.

Thomas of Middle Lambrook, Yeoman

Yeoman Thomas Willy named ten children in his Will. No baptisms have been found for them, indicating that it is quite likely that they were baptized at Middle Lambrook Meeting where the records are missing for most of the 1700's. Information about each child is included in a separate section of this book, and the children are arranged by estimated year of birth. Marriage records for each child show their signatures, and this means each had been educated.

Many records have been found relating to Thomas Willy, yeoman.

In 1762 Thomas Willy, with tenant "Stuckeys," was on a list of farmers in the "Lambrooks" required to do common work for specified ditches in Westmoor, where the farmers had certain rights to common fields. in Westmoor. Also listed was the other Thomas Willy (with "E.L." for East Lambrook) after his name.

In the 1767 land tax list for East Lambrook Tything (which included the area of Middle Lambrook), the following persons were listed: William Gifford, Thomas Willy, Rev'd Joseph Osler (minister of Middle Lambrook) and others. (fns. 5 & 6)

Churchwarden assessment lists for South Petherton Parish (CofE, located just south of Kingsbury Episcopi Parish) included an assessment category entitled “Out Dwellers”. (fn.7) In the years 1771-1774, 1782 and 1795, Mr. Thomas Willy of Middle Lambrook was an Out Dweller. As an example, an image of part of the 1773 list follows:

On December 7, 1774 Maurice Trevillian of Midleney in Drayton Westover Parish entered into a fourteen year Indenture of lease of 170 acre Midleney Farm with Stephen Gifford [son of William Gifford] and Thomas Willy the younger (both of West Lambrook). The lease also covered certain meadow and pasture in the occupation of Thomas Willy the Elder as undertenant. Midleney Farm is near Westmoor. (fn. 9)

In the May 26, 1781 last Will and Testament of Samuel Ostler of Rydon Farm in Compton Durville (a tything of South Petherton), a short distance south of Middle Lambrook, Samuel named his friend Mr. Thomas Willy as one of his trustees and executors. Samuel and Betty Ostler were the parents of Thomas who married Willy’s daughter Susanna. (fn. 10)

From 1781 until the early 1800's Thomas Willy and then his executor or a descendant were listed in the annual land tax records for properties in East Lambrook Tything (which included Middle Lambrook) and West Lambrook Tything of Kingsbury Episcopi Parish.

On July 22, 1784 Thomas Willy of Middle Lambrook and William Gifford jun'r witnessed the last Will and Testament of John Tucker. (fn. 11).

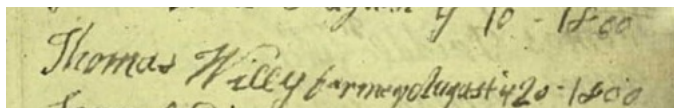

By March 25, 1786 Thomas Willy's son Thomas and his wife and family resided in Southwark, Surrey, just south of the River Thames across from London.

In connection with the marriage on July 23, 1787 of Thomas Willy's son Ambrose to Elizabeth Phelps, Thomas conveyed certain properties in trust (described in his last Will and Testament) for the benefit of Ambrose and Elizabeth. One of the properties was called "the Home Estate . . . which I now (in 1800) live on and occupy."

Jane Willy was buried on May 24, 1793 in Kingsbury Episcopi Parish. Her age at death was not included in the burial record.

In about 1797 Thomas Willy's son John left for America, and started using the alias of John Archerd.

Thomas Willy was buried on August 20, 1800 in Kingsbury Episcopi Parish.

Thomas' Will was approved for probate in London on October 4, 1800.

Who Were the Parents of Thomas Willy?

No baptism record for Thomas Willy has been found and his age at death in 1800 was not included in his burial record.

The name of his mother may have been Priscilla, based upon information gleaned from certain early property transactions. Priscilla may have been born as Priscilla Mead in 1681. She became Mrs. James Willy. Priscilla made her Will in 1747 and named William Russell Mead as her executor.

A transaction by executor Mead in 1751 names Thomas Willy, yeoman of Middle Lambrook.

Transactions by Priscilla Willy, William Russell Mead & Thomas Willy

On May 22, 1732, pursuant to an Indenture, widow Priscilla Willy of Kingsbury Episcopi Parish purchased a mortgage on properties located in Burton (part of the Manor of Moortown), in Curry Rivel Parish. The properties were in the tenure of widow Mary Worthy, whose late husband William, had purchased them in 1729. (fn. 12)

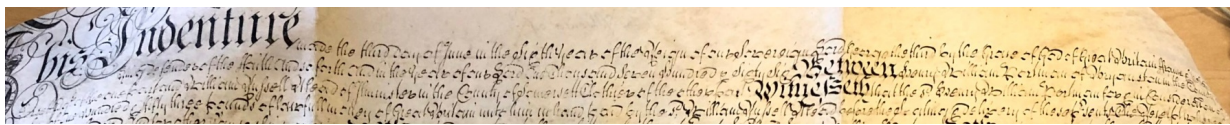

Under subsequent Indentures, dated December 6, 7 and 8, 1751, Mary Worthy, having not met her obligation to repay the principal (with interest) under the mortgage purchased by Priscilla Willy in 1732, transferred the properties covered by the mortgage to William Russell Mead, executor for late Priscilla Willy, and he in turn transferred the properties to Thomas Willy, yeoman of Middle Lambrook. One of the 1751 Indentures stated that Priscilla Willy made her last Will and Testament on May 30, 1747 and appointed Mead as her executor. A copy of Priscilla's Will may not exist. In 1756, in a legal settlement, the effect of the 1751 Indentures was negated. (fn. 12)

It seems reasonable to infer that yeoman Thomas Willy of Middle Lambrook (who died in 1800) was the same person as the yeoman Thomas Willy of the 1751 transaction, and that the 1747 Will of Priscilla Willy devised Priscilla's interest in the mortgage to Thomas. He was likely her son, although absolute proof of that relationship does not exist because of the missing baptism record of Thomas and the missing 1747 Will of Priscilla.

Roofless Tenement

An Indenture dated June 3, 1766 made reference to a roofless tenement and other properties located in Radwell Manor and stated they were "late in the tenure or possession" of Priscilla Willy deceased and then of William Russell Mead. (fn. 13)

The 1766 Indenture was made by Henry William Portman, known to be the proprietor of a significant number of properties within Radwell Manor in Kingsbury Episcopi Parish. The transaction was a lease by Portman to William Russell Mead "clothier" of Ilminster for a term on ninety-nine years if two sons (George, age 21; Stephen, age 18) of William Gifford of Ryden, yeoman shall live that long. William Gifford was Thomas Willy's friend and Thomas and his wife Jane witnessed one of Gifford's Codicils in 1785. Gifford's son James married Willy's daughter Rebecca in 1776. No undertenants of Mead were named in the Indenture.

In addition to the roofless tenement, the 1766 lease covered several parcels of arable land, meadow and pasture land and beast leazes with the names of Northfield, Hill Field, Ash Furlong, Sheepland, Yeallands, Holemead, Brimgore, Shaff Mead, Broad Mead and Horsey.

In William Gifford's last Will and Testament of April 20, 1781, he devised to his son George the leasehold estate in West Lambrook "which I purchased from Mr. William Mead of Ilminster." (fn. 14)

An Indenture dated May 17, 1796 made between Edward Berkeley Portman (successor to Henry William Portman) and the executors in trust for George

Gifford, late of Middle Lambrook, under his last Will and Testament. Portman leased to the executors the roofless tenement and other properties in Radwell Manor identified in the June 3, 1766 lease for the remainder of the original term but now measured by the life of late George Gifford's daughter Mary (aged 9). The lease was to take effect upon the death of William Russell Mead of Allowshay and the death of Stephen Gifford (late George's brother). (fn. 15)

Thomas Willy, yeoman of Middle Lambrook referred in his Will to lands conveyed in a trust to his son Ambrose Willy in consideration of his marriage on July 23, 1787 to Elizabeth Phelps. One of the properties was a "roofless tenement previously called Chapman's" located in East Lambrook tything (which included Middle Lambrook). It is not at all clear that this roofless tenement is the same one as the one described in the 1766 and 1796 leases.

Priscilla Willy

Burial records of Kingsbury Episcopi Parish establish that James and Priscilla Willy buried a daughter named Priscilla on November 21, 1727. James Willy was buried soon after that on January 20, 1730/31. Priscilla was said to be a widow in the Indenture of May 22, 1732.

No baptism record has been found for the daughter Priscilla buried in 1727, and no marriage record has been found for James and Priscilla. There is no burial record or monumental inscription for Priscilla Willy in Kingsbury Episcopi Parish following her 1747 last Will and Testament. (fns. 16 & 17)

William Russell Mead

William Russell Mead was baptized in Barrington Parish on June 8, 1730 by his father Ambrose Mead and his mother Ann. The baptism record gives a birth date of June 2, 1730. (fn. 18)

A photograph of a handwritten baptism record on aged, yellowed paper. The text is written in a cursive script and reads: "William Russell Mead Son of Ambrose Mead and Ann his wife was Born June the 2nd and Baptized the 8 day of June 1730". The paper shows signs of wear, including stains and discoloration.

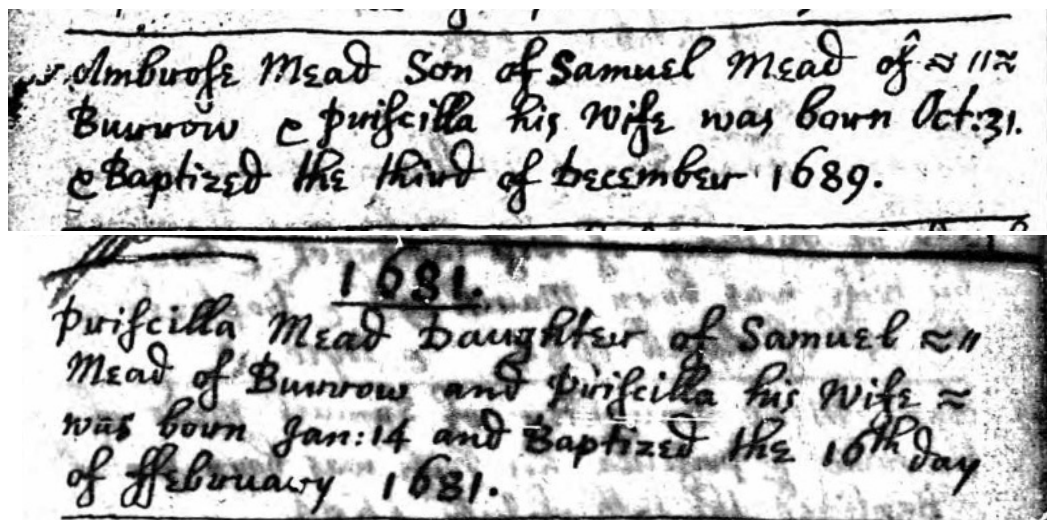

In 1747 Mead was appointed as Executor of widow Priscilla Will's last Will and Testament. In 1755 pursuant to a marriage licence from the Faculty Office of the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, he married widow Sophia Sealy at Iminster Parish. The Iminster marriage record of November 5, 1755 states that Mead was from Kingsbury Episcopi Parish. (fns. 19 & 20)

Ambrose Mead and Priscilla Mead

Ambrose Mead was born on October 31, 1689 in Burrow, Kingsbury Episcopi Parish; he was baptised at Middle Lambrook Meeting on December 3, 1689 by his parents Samuel and Priscilla Mead. The minister was non-conformist minister Thomas Budd; he recorded the birth and baptism information in his Kingsbury Register [RG4/2055]. The Kingsbury Register also included the 1681 birth and baptism information for Ambrose's older sister Priscilla and for eight other siblings.

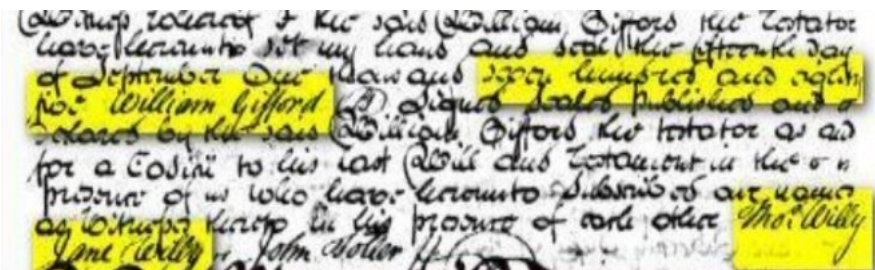

The fact that widow Priscilla Willy (assuming she had been born as Priscilla Mead) would choose her nephew William Russell Mead, son of Ambrose, as her executor seems logical, but there is no proof that Priscilla Mead married James Willy. It also seems logical that Thomas Willy's son Ambrose was named after Ambrose Mead.

5. John Stuckey of Branscombe Parish in Devon was the person leasing land to Thomas Willy. In 1767 Stuckey was the owner of the Manor of Middle Lambrook. See Tytherleigh Estate (Stuckey's of Branscombe, Devon) at p. 199, Somerset & Dorset Notes & Queries, Vol. XIV, September 1915, Part CXI.

6. Henry Sugar (1689-1768) was also in the 1767 East Lambrook land tax list and appeared to live quite near Thomas Willy. In the tax list for 1766 he was shown as Henry "Shagher". Henry was buried in Kingsbury Episcopi on January 31, 1768. Previously he had married Ann Westcott in Martock Parish on February 11, 1723. Henry's mother was Mary Willey, daughter of John Willey of Middle Lambrook. According to Thomas Budd's "Kingsbury Register", Henry Sugar, son of Thomas Sugar of Middle Lambrook and Mary his wife, was born January 6 and baptized January 15, 1689.

lease and release (a method of conveying full ownership). The Source folder (below) does not contain a copy of Priscilla Willy's 1747 Will nor is the Will indexed at the Somerset Archives (as confirmed on October 24, 2024 by local studies expert Harriet Moffett of the Archives). The 1747 Will is not in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury index. On June 14, 1756 William Russell Mead, two nieces of Mary Worthy (who had died in 1754) and one other party, all of whom were defendants in a lawsuit brought by Ann Powell, entered into an agreement with Powell settling the lawsuit and confirming that the properties described in the 1732 mortgage were being transferred to Ann Powell for a payment of £100. The 1756 agreement was part of the common law writ of covenant procedure whereby a land transfer could be described as the settlement of a dispute. [Source: Somerset Archives ref id DD/AL/17.]

13. Source: Somerset Archives DD/PM/21/4/1.2. Priscilla Willy's possession would have ended with her death (between 1747 and 1751) and William Russell Mead's possession, probably as Priscilla's executor, would have ended on June 3, 1766 when the new lease was signed.

16. From 1697 through 1792, the baptism and marriage records are missing for Middle Lambrook Meeting (located within Kingsbury Episcopi Parish, Somerset).

17. For Kingsbury Episcopi Parish, Somerset), baptism records are missing for 1653-1659; 1685-1700; 1714-1728; summer 1743 to summer 1753; marriage records from 1695 through 1725 are missing for various years where the upper corners of the register pages have disintegrated, and pages are missing for most of 1726; 1727 and 1733; parts of 1739 and 1740; 1742; May 1743 through April 1753; and burials records are missing for August 1743 through late May 1753; and September 1755 through July 1760.

18. There are burials in Kingsbury Episcopi on October 6, 1723 for "Samuel the reputed son of Ambrose Meade & Ann Samsum (hard to read)", and on September 27, 1728 for "Ann Sansumb widdow". This raises the possibility that the mother of William Russell Mead was Ann Russell.

19. Sophia Sealy was born in Hatch Beauchamp Parish about 1727 as Sophia Westcott, daughter of Rev'd Robert Westcott and Mary Dyer. Robert Westcott

20. After the death of William Russell Mead's wife Sophia in 1777, Mead married again, on May 4, 1790 to Mary Hutchings of Allowenshay. Mead died in 1803.

Son Thomas Willy

Chronology

1750: Based upon son Thomas Willy's age at death from his burial record, he was born in the year 1750. He was probably baptized at the Middle Lambrook Meeting by his parents Thomas and Jane, but baptism records for most of the 1700's for the Meeting are lost.

1772: On February 26, 1772 Thomas Willy married Ann Fry at Kingsbury Episcopi Parish, Curate Joseph Good officiating. The register was signed by Thomas and Ann and also by witnesses William Humphrey and Betty Fry.

No baptism record has been found for Ann Fry, but there is a September 5, 1771 burial in Kingsbury Episcopi of Giles Fry, who was probably her father. Thomas and Ann named a son Giles, and the village of Kingsbury land tax lists for 1766 and 1767 included Giles Fry. Marriage witness William Humphrey married Betty Fry in 1773 in Kingsbury Episcopi. In 1781 in Kingsbury Episcopi Samuel Humphrey married Hannah Fry and Thomas Humphrey married Rebecca Fry.

1773-1786: During these years Thomas and Ann had at least seven children, the first six probably at Midelney Farm in Drayton Parish north of Middle Lambrook. Only two baptism records have been found, one for Ambrose (born late 1780 at "Midney" and baptized at Roundwell St. Chapel in South Petherton) and one for Rebecca (baptized at a Dissenters' Chapel in Southwark near London). Apprenticeship and other records for four of Thomas and Ann's five sons indicate that the parents took steps to establish the sons in non-agricultural careers in the London area. The family was residing in St. Thomas Parish in Southwark by 1786.

1773: Thomas and Ann had a son they named Thomas. No baptism record has been found. The year of birth has been assumed to be 15 years before he entered an apprenticeship in London in 1788 (which led him to become a trunk-maker).

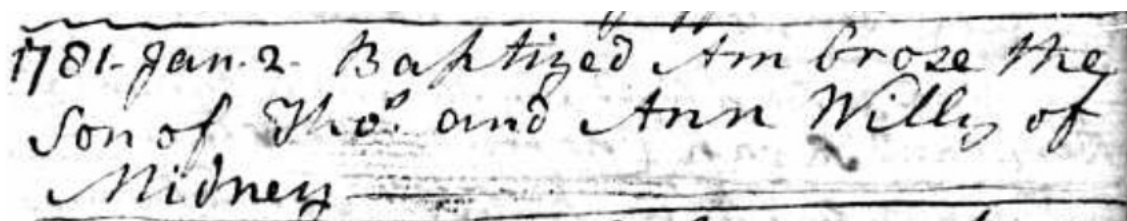

1774: On December 7, 1774 Maurice Trevillian of Midleney in Drayton Westover Parish entered into a fourteen year Indenture of lease of 170 acre Midleney Farm with Thomas Willy the younger and Stephen Gifford (both of West Lambrook). The lease also covered certain meadow and pasture in the occupation of Thomas Willy the Elder as undertenant. Midleney Farm is near Westmoor. (fn. 1)

1774: Thomas and Ann had a son they named John. No baptism record has been found. The year of birth was calculated from John's age in the 1841 census; it is also 15 years before John entered an apprenticeship in London in 1789 (which led him to become a trunk-maker).

1775: Thomas and Ann had a daughter they named Ann. No baptism record has been found. The year of birth was calculated on the basis of Ann's age in the 1851 census for Islington Parish in Middlesex (where she was listed under her married name Ann Chillingworth).

1777: Thomas and Ann had a son they named Giles. No baptism record has been found. The year of birth was calculated from Giles' age at death (50) from his July 29, 1817 burial record at St. Marylebone, Middlesex. Giles became a trunk-maker like his brothers, but no apprenticeship record has been found for him.

1780: Thomas and Ann had a son they named Ambrose. He was born at the family abode of "Midney" and baptized on January 2, 1781 at the Roundwell Street independent chapel in South Petherton. (fn. 2).

A photograph of a handwritten baptism record on aged, slightly stained paper. The text is written in a cursive script. It reads: "1781-Jan-2. Baptized Ambrose the Son of Tho<sup>s</sup> and Ann Willy of Midney". The entry is underlined.

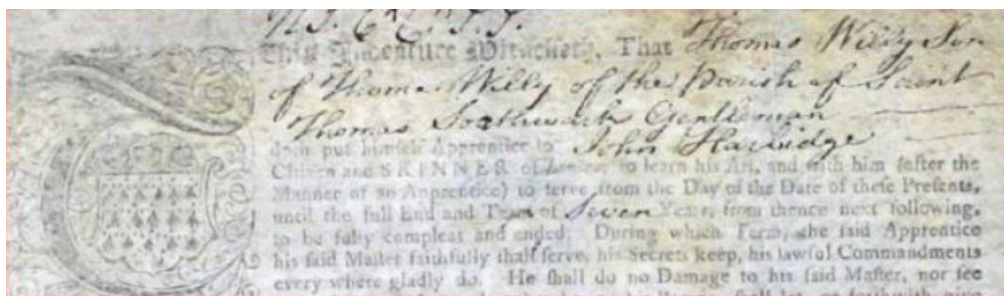

1782: Thomas and Ann had a son they named James. No baptism record has been found. The year of birth was calculated on the assumption that James was 21 when he married Elizabeth Carter in Rotherhithe, Surrey (part of the Southwark area of London) in 1803. James became a mariner.

1786: On March 25, 1786 daughter Rebecca was born to "Thomas Willy & Anne his wife, St. Thomas Rents" and was baptized on May 7, 1786 at the Dissenter's Chapel of St. Thomas South in Southwark, Surrey, and she was buried there on October 10, 1786. (fn. 3)

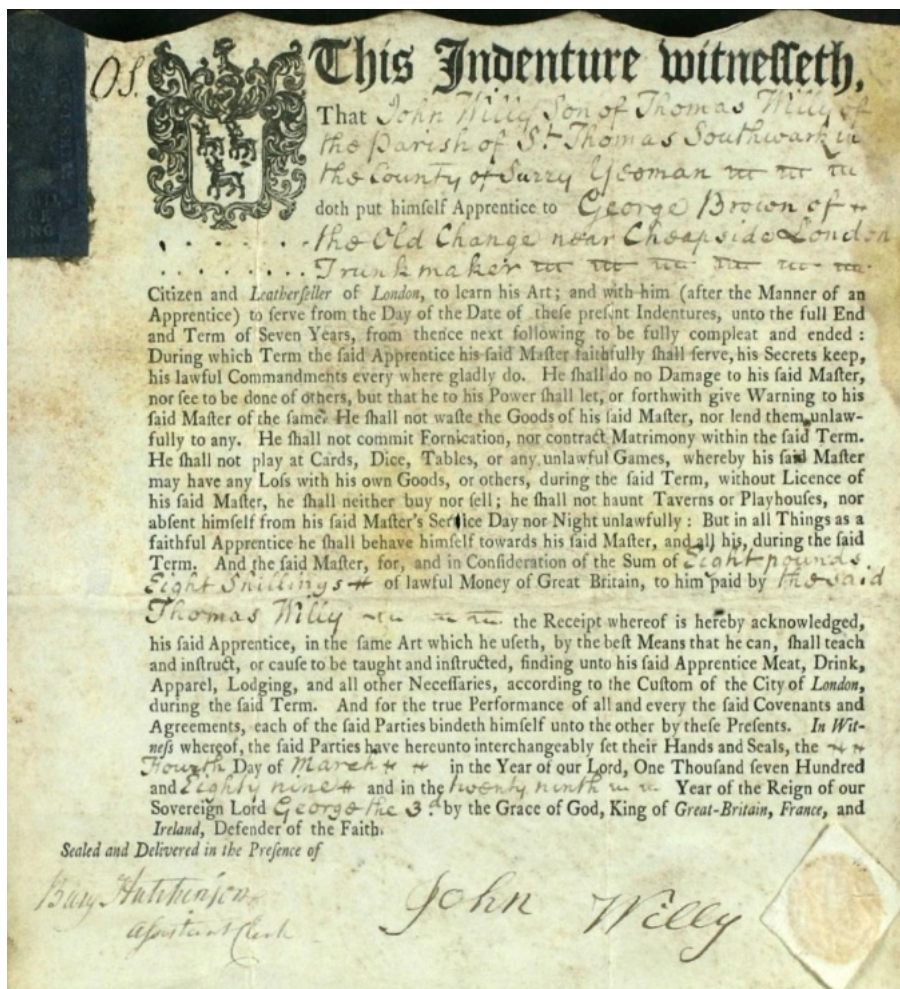

1788: On August 5, 1788 son Thomas Willy entered an apprenticeship under John Harbridge ("Citizen and Skinner of London"). The apprenticeship Indenture identified Thomas as the son of Thomas Willy of the Parish of Saint Thomas Southwark, Gentleman. In 1792 Harbridge assigned the Indenture to John Brown (Joyner) for the remainder of the term of the apprenticeship. Thomas was to learn the trade of trunk-maker (the manufacture of trunks and boxes for carrying clothing and other personal items).

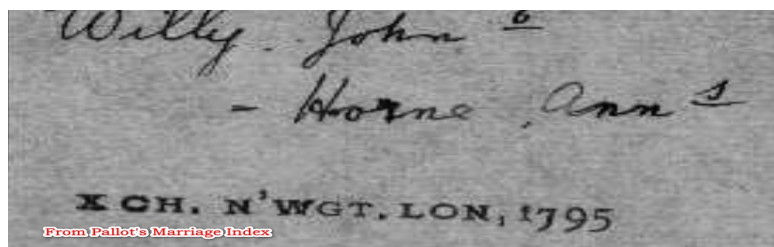

1789: On March 4, 1789 son John Willy entered an apprenticeship under George Brown, “trunk-maker of Old Change near Cheapside, London.” A 1795 city directory shows George Brown, trunk-maker, at 17 Little Carter Lane (which intersected with Old Change), a location close to the south side of St. Paul’s Cathedral.

1795: Son John Willy married Anne Horne in 1795 at Christ Church Newgate Street in the City of London. Christ Church stood opposite St. Paul’s Cathedral and it was also near George Brown’s shop at 17 Carter Lane.

1795-1796: Land tax records for St. Olave Southwark (adjacent to St. Thomas Southwark) listed the senior Thomas Willey (sic) on "Westside Maze Pond."

1797: On December 25, 1797, son Thomas Willy married Sarah Crooks at Southwark St. Savior. The witnesses included his siblings Ambrose and Ann.

1800: Thomas Willy of Middle Lambrook, in his last Will and Testament, bequeathed £1, 6s to his son Thomas. This small amount probably means that son Thomas was being disinherited or that he had received his inheritance early.

1800-1809: Land tax records for St. Thomas Southwark listed the senior Thomas Willey (sic) on St. Thomas Street, where he occupied a house owned by The Governors of St. Thomas's Hospital. His Crook in-laws were nearby in St. Thomas Southwark near Maze Pond.

1802: On June 28, 1802, son Giles Willy married Elizabeth Ann Crooks at Southwark St. Savior. One witness was his brother James.

1803: On November 21, 1803, at St. Mary's, Rotherhithe, Southwark, Surrey, James Willy married Elizabeth Carter of Southwark St. Savior. Witnesses included James' siblings Ambrose and Ann.

1803: Son John Willy was the subject of insolvency proceedings, according to the Times of London dated November 23, 1803: "J. Willy, Oxford-street, trunk-maker."

1804-1808: Land tax records for St. Anne, Westminster identify "John Willy" on Oxford-street.

1809: On August 8, 1809, at St. Mary Woolnoth, City of London, after banns, Ambrose Willy and Maria Parkes were married by John Grose, minister. Ambrose and Maria signed the register, as did witnesses Joseph Williams, Henry Parkes and Ann Chillingworth. Ann Chillingworth was formerly Ann Willy, who married Joseph Chillingworth in the same parish on May 2, 1809. Ann was Ambrose's sister.

1816: On March 3, 1816 Thomas Willey (sic) of John Street East Lane, age 66, was buried at Saint Mary Newington, Surrey.

Descendants of Thomas & Ann's Son Thomas

Thomas and his wife Sarah, married in 1797, had five daughters from 1799 to 1807 and a son Thomas in 1811. In the son's baptism record his father was listed as a trunk-maker. In 1836, Thomas (born 1811 and married in 1832 to Mary Ann Threadgold) was admitted to the Company of Skinners and the admission record referred to his father being in the same Company and having been admitted in 1802. The supporting oath for the 1836 event was signed by his uncle John Willy and others. Thomas and Mary Ann had a large family, with many descendants (including many now living).

Descendants of Thomas & Ann's Son John

John and his wife Ann, married in 1795, had five children from 1796 to 1803. Three died young, one as an infant and two under the age of ten. Sons Thomas John and James survived to marry and have families.

Thomas John Willy was baptized on September 1, 1796 at St. Gregory by St. Paul, City of London. He married Susannah Barker on November 11, 1827 at St. James Piccadilly, Westminster. They emigrated in October 1829 on the sailing ship Warrior bound for the Swan River Colony (later the Fremantle/Perth area of Western Australia). They landed in March 1830 and soon thereafter moved to the south on the Brig Emily Taylor to what became Augusta near Flinders Bay. According to a Bicentennial Dictionary of Western Australians: "Thomas was a servant for the Turners. He worked as a sawyer for Turner briefly at Augusta before moving to Fremantle and then to the Murray district. By the 1850's he was established in Beverley with his sons. He was a box & trunk maker." Thomas John [Wiley], his wife Susannah and many of their children are buried at Gilgering Cemetery, York Shire, Western Australia. There are many descendants now living in or near Perth in Western Australia, and also in South Australia and New Zealand. Thomas John was the ancestor of the W. Australian man who tested positive for the I-FGC10444 mutation in 2023.

James Willy, Thomas John's brother, was baptized on September 11, 1801 at St. Clement Danes, City of London. James married and had four sons and a daughter from 1826 to 1836. There are many descendants, including some now living.

Descendants of Thomas & Ann's Daughter Ann

Ann and husband Joseph Chillingworth, a confectioner in London, married in 1809, and had three children from 1810 to 1816. The two daughters did not marry, and the son Joseph did not marry until he was age 54. There are no known children.

Descendants of Thomas & Ann's Son Giles

Giles and his wife Elizabeth Ann, married in 1802, had 11 children. A number of them survived to marry and have families. There are many descendants now living. Giles died at age 50 in 1827 and was buried in St. Marylebone Parish, Westminster. Giles was ancestor of the Canadian man who tested positive for the I-FGC10444 mutation in 2018.

Descendants of Thomas & Ann's Son Ambrose

Ambrose and his wife Maria, married in 1809, had nine children. Ambrose was admitted to the Company of Loriners in 1811 and became a free man of the City of London. [A Loriner makes and sells bits, bridles, spurs, stirrups and the minor metal items of a horse's harness, together with the saddle tree. Distinguished horsemen have also been made honorary Loriner members.] By at least 1835 Ambrose and his family resided at Park House in Teddington Parish, Hampton, near the Royal Stables at Bushy Park. Census records describe Ambrose as a Gentleman living on his own means. There are no known living descendants.

Descendants of Thomas & Ann's Son James

James and his wife Elizabeth Carter, married in 1803, had five children from 1806-1815. James was a mariner and the family resided for a period of time in Liverpool. There are descendants of James and Elizabeth living today.

Daughter Priscilla Willy

Chronology

1754: Based upon Priscilla Willy's age at death recorded in her burial records, she was born in the year 1754. She was probably baptized at the Middle Lambrook Meeting by her parents Thomas and Jane, but baptism records for most of the 1700's for the Meeting are lost.

1800: Thomas Willy, in his August 7, 1800 Will (with August 8, 1800 Codicil), bequeathed £125 in trust to his son-in-law James Thomas for the benefit of Priscilla Willy. She was to receive a weekly amount of 2s, 6p for life. At her death the trust would end and the trust balance would belong to James Thomas.

1820: Priscilla Willy, abode West Lambrook, was buried in Kingsbury Episcopi Parish on Nov 15, 1820, age 66. There are two burial records.

1826: On October 6, 1826 James Thomas, whose abode was listed as New Cross in West Lambrook, age 74, was buried at Kingsbury Episcopi.

Daughter Mary (Willy) Thomas

Chronology

1756: Based upon Mary Willy's age at death recorded in her 1840 burial record, she was born in the year 1756. She was probably baptized at the Middle Lambrook Meeting by her parents Thomas and Jane, but baptism records for most of the 1700's for the Meeting are lost.

1771: James Thomas was a witness to the marriage of Joan Thomas and George Willy on December 11, 1772 at Kingsbury Episcopi. [James was born in the year 1752, based upon his age at death recorded in his 1826 burial record.]

1775: On October 30, 1775 Mary Willy married James Thomas at Kingsbury Episcopi. The register was signed by James and Mary and also by witnesses Susanna Willy (Mary's sister) and Anna Best.

1780: Henry Thomas Portman leased a cottage in West Lambrook (part of Radwell Manor), to James Thomas, carpenter of West Lambrook, on March 25, 1780. (fn. 1)

1795: There are no known children of Mary and James from baptism records but in the 1851 census for Martock Parish, there is a carpenter named James Thomas who was born in Kingsbury Episcopi. This seems to be the same carpenter as listed in the 1841 Kingsbury Episcopi census, about age 40, with a wife and two children (fn. 2)

1800: Thomas Willy, in his August 7, 1800 Will (with August 8, 1800 Codicil), bequeathed £70 to his daughter Mary Thomas and also the remainder of a [£125] trust for the life of Priscilla Willy to Mary's husband James.

1826: On October 6, 1826 James Thomas, whose abode was listed as New Cross in West Lambrook, age 74, was buried at Kingsbury Episcopi. No Will or estate administration record has been found for him. His widow Mary would have been entitled to the estate assets.

1840: On October 28, 1840 Mary Thomas, abode East Lambrook, age 84, was buried at Kingsbury Episcopi.

Daughter Susanna (Willy) Ostler

Chronology

1757: The year of birth for Susanna Willy has been assumed to be 21 years prior to her marriage. There was no age at death recorded in her 1786 burial record. She was probably baptized at the Middle Lambrook Meeting by her parents Thomas and Jane, but baptism records for most of the 1700's for the Meeting are lost.

1778: On February 26, 1778 Susanna Willy married Thomas Ostler, a farmer, at Kingsbury Episcopi. The register was signed by Thomas and Susanna and also by witnesses Ambrose Willy (her brother) and Wm Glover (church clerk). [ Thomas Ostler was born in 1753; he was the son of Samuel and Betty Ostler of Rydon Farm of Compton Durville Tything of South Petherton Parish; they baptized Thomas at the South Petherton Old Meeting (Presbyterian).]

1779-1786: Four children were born to Susanna and Thomas: Susanna (called Hannah), Martha, Mary and Thomas. Hannah" Ostler was baptized in South Petherton on June 23, 1779. No baptism records have been found in South Petherton for the other children, but there are South Petherton burial records for Martha (on March 29, 1786) and Thomas (on August 30, 1786). Susanna and Mary were living in 1800.

1786: Susanna (Willy) Ostler was buried on May 28, 1786, and Thomas Ostler on April 19, 1807, both in South Petherton Parish.

1800: Thomas Willy, in his August 7, 1800 Will (with August 8, 1800 Codicil), bequeathed £50 each to his granddaughters Susanna Baker and Mary Ostler.

Daughter Rebecca (Willy) Gifford

Chronology

1759: Based upon Rebecca Willy's age at death recorded in her burial record, she was born in the year 1759. She was probably baptized at the Middle Lambrook Meeting by her parents Thomas and Jane, but baptism records for most of the 1700's for this Meeting are lost. (fn. 1)

1776: On September 24, 1776 Rebecca Willy married James Gifford, farmer of South Petherton (fn. 2) at Kingsbury Episcopi. The register was signed by James and Rebecca and also by witnesses James Thomas (her brother-in-law) and Wm Glover (church clerk).

1777-1801: Eleven children were born to Rebecca and James. The Gifford children born from 1777 through 1799 were probably baptized at the Middle Lambrook Meeting. In about 1800 Rebecca and James and all of their children except John (the oldest child) moved to Wellow Parish, located north of the City of Bath. The last child was baptized in Wellow Parish in 1801. (fn. 3)

1781-85: James Gifford's father William made his Will in 1781 and four Codicils thereafter and died in 1785. James was named in the Will and Codicils. The third Codicil was witnessed by Thomas and Jane Willy, the parents of James's wife Rebecca.

1800: On March 25, 1800 Henry Berkeley Portman of Middlesex leased property located in Wellow Parish to Mr. James Gifford Esq. Of Middle Lambrook. (fn. 4)

1800: Thomas Willy, in his August 7, 1800 Will (with August 8, 1800 Codicil), bequeathed £70 to his daughter Rebecca Gifford.

1810: James Gifford of Wellow Parish, Somerset, farmer, made his Last Will and Testament on February 14, 1810. He referred to advances already made to sons John and William (£100 each) and daughter Mary (£60), and he made £100 bequests to sons James, Thomas, George, Samuel, Isaac and Simeon and £60 bequests to daughters Jane, Anna and Rebecca. The bequests were to be paid when each child reached age 21. The Will placed all assets in trust with son John as trustee. The income of the trust was for the benefit of wife Rebecca for her life and the residuary estate was for the children in proportion based on a formula using £100 for sons and £60 for daughters. Son John was named executor. Witnesses were William Hooper, Robt Ivey and Stephen Clement Webb of Bath, conveyancer. On May 25, 1811 James Gifford certified that daughter Jane had received a £60 advancement. (fn. 5)

1819: James Gifford, whose abode was listed as Wellow, age 63, was buried in Wellow Parish on August 4, 1819.

1831: On June 22, 1831 Rebecca Gifford, whose abode was listed as Woolley, age 72, was buried in Wellow Parish.

1834: On March 22, 1835 the Will and Codicil of James Gifford were proved at London on oath of son John Gifford.

1870: Roseanna Gifford, a granddaughter of Rebecca and James Gifford and a daughter of Thomas Gifford and Jane Barnard, married Nehemiah Weston in Bristol in 1845. In 1870 the Weston family emigrated to the United States. They took the railroad from New York City to Ogden, Utah, and then a wagon to Laketown in Rich County, Utah. (fn. 6)

Footnotes

1. A family history "Benjamin Alma Fowler and Mary Rosanna Crowther with their Ancestors and Children", compiled by Vella Young Yates and Rosalie Young Farnback, states, without a source, that Rebecca Catherine Willey (sic) was born on February 24, 1758, and that her husband James Gifford was born on March 16, 1756. The only possible source for this information would be a family bible or other private family record. Middle Lambrook Meeting baptism records (which might have included birth dates) are lost. In 2019 Vella Yates advised me by email that the birth dates "came from family information received in the 1800's by family in England." The family history is copyright 1999 by Bonazo Publishers, Inc., copy at familysearch.org/books – TN-829499.

2. James Gifford was born in 1756 to William and Mary (Willy) Gifford of Middle Lambrook. William and Mary were married in 1735 in Kingsbury Episcopi.

Mary was a daughter of nonconformists George and Mary (Wellment) of Kingsbury Episcopi.

3. The children of Rebecca and James were: John (who married Hannah Mead in 1800 & had three more wives); William (who married Elizabeth Bunes in 1806); James; Jane (who married William Dagg in 1803); Mary (who married Robert Sesard in 1805); Thomas (who married Jane Barnard in 1814); George (who married Ruth Pow in 1824 & had a 2nd wife); Rebecca (who married Robert Munty in 1816); Samuel; Isaac; and Simeon.

Son Ambrose Willy

Chronology

1760: The year of birth for Ambrose Willy is difficult to estimate. It was probably in about 1760. His 1810 burial record did not include an age at death. He was probably baptized at the Middle Lambrook Meeting by his parents Thomas and Jane, but baptism records for most of the 1700's for the Meeting are lost.

1778: Ambrose witnessed the marriage in 1778 of his sister Susanna. (fn. 1)

1782: In 1782 Ambrose was named a trustee in the Will of Edward England.

1783: Ambrose witnessed the marriage of his sister Jemima in 1783.

1787: On July 23, 1787 Ambrose married Elizabeth Phelps (of Shepton Beauchamp) in Shepton Beauchamp Parish by licence (copy of licence not found); the marriage was performed by Rector Henry Newman. Both Ambrose and Elizabeth signed the register, as did witnesses Joseph Phelps (Elizabeth's father or brother) and John Robinson. Elizabeth was born in 1767. Prior to Ambrose's marriage to Elizabeth, his father Thomas conveyed certain properties as a settlement in consideration of the marriage. This was mentioned in the last Will and Testament of Ambrose's father made in 1800.

* In Barrington Parish on February 6, 1788 "Joseph son of Ambroce (sic) & Betty Willey (sic) of Lambrook was privately baptised."

* In Barrington Parish on February 10, 1792 "Thos Son of Ambroce (sic) & Betty Willey (sic) of Lambrook" was baptized.

* 1793: Based on the age at death in the burial record of Jane (Willy) Harding, Jane Willy was born about 1793. The baptism record has not been found.

* In Shepton Beauchamp Parish on December 30, 1795 "John Son of Ambrose and Elizth Willy" was baptized; he was buried there on August 18, 1797.

1800: Thomas Willy, in his August 7, 1800 Will (with August 8, 1800 Codicil), bequeathed and devised to his son Ambrose: "first all the rest residue and remainder of my freehold Estate Lands Tenements and premises with the appurtenances which were not by me heretofore conveyed to or in trust for my son Ambrose Willy previous to or in consideration of his marriage (that is to say) one Messuage or Dwellinghouse Barn Barton Outhouses Garden Orchard Closes pieces and parcels of Land Meadow and pasture and premises with the appurts commonly called or known by the name of the Home Estate and which I now live on and occupy Also a roofless Tenement or Estate previously called Chapmans containing by estimation fourteen acres (more or less) together with half an acre (more or less) of arable land commonly called Deanes and one yard or rood (more or less) of arable land and commonly called Russells with their and each of their rights encumbrs and appurts All which said premises are situate lying and being in the Tithing of East Lambrook in the Parish of Kingsbury Episcopi aforesaid" and these assets were charged with and subject to the requirement that Ambrose pay the £100 bequest his father made to Ambrose's brother John.

- * A second John Willy was born to Ambrose and Elizabeth in about 1800; he was named in Ambrose's 1810 Will.

- * In Shepton Beauchamp Parish on May 4, 1802 "Robert Son of Ambrose and Elizth Willey of Middle Lambrook" was baptized.

- * In Shepton Beauchamp Parish on November 30, 1803 "Elizabeth Daughter of Ambrose and Elizth Willey of Middle Lambrook" was baptized.

- * In about 1805 James Willy was born to Ambrose and Elizabeth.

1806: In March 1806 Elizabeth's father Joseph made his Last Will and Testament in Shepton Beauchamp Parish. He left to his daughter Elizabeth Willy a property located in Compton Durville Tything of South Petherton Hundred.

1806: Ambrose Willy had property at Court Farm, located near Hillfarance (about 2.5 miles southwest of Norton Fitzwarren Parish). (fn. 2)

1810: By 1810 Ambrose and his family lived in Norton Fitzwarren Parish and that is where he made his Will on May 3, 1810. He was buried on May 25.

1810: Ambrose's Will was admitted to probate on October 30, 1810, as indicated by tax records, summarized below:

*Date of Probate and Sum sworn: October 30, Under 1500 L, case #409.

*Name and Description of Testator or Testatrix: Ambrose Willy of Norton Fitzwarren, yeoman; two numbers in this column: 91011121314 and 166124.

[Italics added for emphasis.] (fn. 3)

1815: On August 15, 1815 widow Elizabeth Willy (of South Petherton Parish) married William Sweeting in Ilchester Parish, Somerset, by licence. Witnesses were R'd Parfett and Wm Horsey. The marriage was performed by Thomas Ebrey, Rector. (fn. 4)

1824: "Oct. 4. Ambrose Willy's estate at Middle Lambrook was sold. Rev. John Wells, Minister of the meeting, bought lot 5, 1 1/2 acres with Barn, Stall and Flax shop in the Orchard with 1 right of Common in West Moor for £166, Auctioneer 10/-, Duty 7d. per pound, 10% deposit, remainder by Christmas." (Mr. Well's wife was Mary Hebditch.) (fn. 5)

1826: Elizabeth Sweeting, age 59, abode Compton Durville, was buried on June 28, 1826 in Shepton Beauchamp Parish. No Will or estate administration has been found for her.

1784-1832: Land Tax Details (fn. 6)

Descendants of Ambrose & Elizabeth's Son Joseph

Joseph married Sarah Edwards in 1815 in Crewkerne Parish, Somerset. The same year he witnessed his sister Jane's marriage to Henry Harding in South Petherton.

Joseph and Sarah resided in Middle Lambrook, according to the baptisms of their six children and their family resided in the Middle Lambrook area until at least 1831 according to nonconformist baptism records, and from 1815 to at least 1821 Joseph appeared to be farming the Compton Durville property owned by his mother. In 1831 Ambrose, son of Joseph and Sarah, was buried in Kingsbury Episcopi Parish.

In December 1836 Mary, daughter of Joseph and Sarah, was married to John George Crowe in St. Marylebone Parish, Middlesex. The family, without father Joseph, resided in Southwark, Surrey, according to the 1841 census. Sarah was the head of household and sons Joseph, Thomas and Edward were residing with her. Father Joseph died in 1848 in Southwark. Widow Sarah Willy died in 1850.

Descendants of Ambrose & Elizabeth's Daughter Jane

Jane married Henry Harding in South Petherton Parish in 1815; her brother Joseph Willy was one of the witnesses. She and Henry had two daughters, both of whom died young. In 1851, according to the census, the Hardings lived on Midd Lane in South Petherton Parish, and nephew John Willy, 11, scholar, born South Petherton, resided with them. He was probably the son born in 1840 to Jane's brother John.

16	Midd Lane	Henry Harding	Hard	Mar	52	16	16	16	16
		Jane	Wife	Mar	44
		John Willy	Scholar	11

Jane Harding died on September 22, 1865 in South Petherton Parish.

Descendants of Ambrose & Elizabeth's Son James

James Willy married Ann Champion on January 28, 1828 in St. Cuthbert Wells Parish, Somerset. Their daughter Elizabeth was born in 1840 and son James Champion in 1843. He died at age 2.

In 1840 James' brother John was driving one of James' carrier wagons and at the Blue Bowl Inn in Compton Martin was found to have stolen a spare rib, for which he was transported to Tasmania in 1841. (fn. 7)

In the 1841 census for St. Cuthbert Wells, on High Street: James Willey (sic), 38, carrier, wife Ann, 35, and daughter Elizabeth, 2.

James was still living in 1842, according to the deposition of Thomas Gould, one of the wagon drivers for James. (fn. 7)

In the 1851 census for St. Cuthbert Wells, Ann Willy, 48, was listed as a widow and as office-keeper for a solicitor. Daughter Elizabeth was age 10.

James Willy's burial record has not been found.

Descendants of Ambrose & Elizabeth's Son John

John Willy, a widower, married Elizabeth Bryant in South Petherton on July 16, 1832. His wife Elizabeth was baptized in 1808 in Broadwinsor, Dorset. Their daughter Isabella was born in 1833 and she was baptized in South Petherton. Their daughter Louisa was baptized in 1836 in South Petherton but she died in

On March 23, 1840 the elder John Willy was arrested for allegedly stealing one spare rib of pork worth three shillings. He was convicted and was transported to Tasmania with a seven year sentence.

[illegible]

In 1853 Isabella Willy married George Trask. In 1855 the Trask family and John Willy, 14, went out to Australia on the ship Conrad (fn. 8) and in due course arrived and settled in Geelong in the Colony of Victoria. The ship's arrival record stated that the Trasks and John Willy were headed for his father's residence in Geelong (where he had gone after serving his sentence in Tasmania).

The elder John Willy died in 1884 and was buried, aged 82, in Geelong Eastern Cemetery. His son John died in 1887 and his death notice in the Geelong Advertiser said he was formerly of South Petherton, Somerset. His death registration record said his mother's maiden name was Bryant. The following image is courtesy of FindAGrave:

A descendant of Isabella (Willy) Trask has a small autosomal match with the compiler of this book.

Descendants of Ambrose & Elizabeth's Son Robert

Robert Willy married Ann Priddle in South Petherton on April 11, 1821. Witnesses were his brother John and Samuel Parker. Five year old Joseph Willy was buried in South Petherton in 1826. He may have been Robert and Ann's son. No further information has been found for this family.

6. Land Tax:
  - * 1784-1806: In West Lambrook from 1784-1787 Joseph Phelps occupied land owned by William and Cordelia Ostler. During those years Ambrose's father also occupied West Lambrook property and Joseph Phelps had land in Shepton Beauchamp Parish. In 1788 Ambrose Willy replaced Joseph Phelps as occupier under the Ostlers in West Lambrook and remained occupier through 1795. The next year his brother-in-law Joseph Phelps was the occupier under the Ostlers and remained occupier through 1806.
  - * 1800-1832: In the 1800 tax list for Compton Durville Tything of South Petherton Hundred, Joseph Phelps was proprietor of property and Ambrose Willy was the occupier and next to him was occupier Thomas Willy. Then from 1801 through 1810 Ambrose occupied all of Joseph Phelps' property. [Note: This was probably brother-in-law Joseph Phelps because father-in-law Joseph Phelps died in 1806.] In 1811-1813 late Ambrose Willy was the proprietor and from 1814-1832 the proprietor was Mrs. Willy and then Elizabeth Sweeting or her executors. Joseph Willy was the occupier from 1815-1821; in 1826 it was James Willy.
  - * 1806-1810: Sept 5, 1806 Norton Fitzwarren Parish tax list: Proprietor John Prowse Esq to occupier Ambrose Willy (five parcels of land including Court Farm, which was assessed for £17 1s, and this means it must be a reasonably large dwelling house and farming establishment). The other four parcels were each assessed in amounts under 1 pound.
  - * 1811-1819: Norton Fitzwarren tax list shows the Late John Prowse Esq as proprietor and the occupier of Court Farm and the other parcels were Joseph Phelps, Ambrose Willy's brother-in-law. Phelps was still the occupier in 1819, but the next year there was a new occupier of the Prowse estate.

* 1801-1832: Land tax information for East Lambrook Tything (which includes the Willy "Home Estate" in Middle Lambrook) (1st name is proprietor; 2d name is occupier; numbers=tax): * 1801: Late Thos Willy's > Ambrose Willy > 0.15.10. * 1802-05: Mr. Ambrose Willy > himself > 0.15.10. * 1806-10: Mr. Ambrose Willy > Jacob Ware > 0.15.10. * 1811-12: Late Ambrose Willy > Jacob Ware > 0.15.10. * 1813-21: Joseph Willy > himself > 0.15.10. * 1822-24: Jos. Willy > Mr. John Gifford > 0.15.10. * 1825-28: Willys > 8 occupiers (including Joseph Willy & Rev. Wells). * 1829-32: no reference to Joseph Willy or Rev. Wells.

7. In a February 1, 1840 deposition in connection with "accused John Willy," Mr. Walford said he was a butcher in Ubley and that on 31 January he had gone to the Blue Bowl Inn at Compton Martin to sell meat, left his cart for awhile and when he came back a spare rib of pork worth 3 shillings was missing; he said the landlord of the Blue Bowl Inn suspected Willy, and that the Constable of Compton Martin caught up with Willy and found a spare rib in his wagon. In another deposition, Thomas Gould testified in 1842 that "I am a waggoner to James Willy of Wells carrier [and] I left Wells to go to Bristol with my Master's waggon. I went by way of the Blue Bowl Inn Harptrey [and went on with another waggoner] through Chew Stoke over Dundry Hill and through Bedminster...." ## Daughter Jemima (Willy) White

Chronology

1762: The year of birth for Jemima Willy has been assumed to be 21 years prior to her 1783 marriage. There was no age at death recorded in her 1789 burial record. She was probably baptized at the Middle Lambrook Meeting by her parents Thomas and Jane, but baptism records for most of the 1700's for the Meeting are lost.

1783: On August 27, 1783 Jemima Willy married Arthur White at Kingsbury Episcopi. The marriage register was signed by Arthur and Jemima and by witnesses Ambrose Willy (her brother) and William Glover (church clerk). [Arthur White was baptized on September 9, 1759 at Kingsbury Episcopi.]

1789: On April 22, 1789 "Jemya White" was buried at Kingsbury Episcopi.

1800: Thomas Willy, in his August 7, 1800 Will (with August 8, 1800 Codicil), bequeathed £25 each to his granddaughters Mary and Charlotte White.

1800: Arthur White was the sole executor of his father Arthur's last Will and Testament made on December 8, 1800 and proved in September 1801. (PCC Wills - PROB 11/1363. Son Arthur was entitled to the rest, residue and remainder of the estate, subject to the payment of legacies to Alice White, Hannah White, Mary Male, John White and Elizabeth Best.

1805: In 1805 Arthur and Jemima's daughter Mary White married Robert England in Kingsbury Episcopi Parish. The England's first daughter was named Jemima Willy England. The first son was named Robert White England; he married Jessica Poole in 1830 in Seavington St. Michael Parish. A descendant of their son Stephen Herbert England removed to Victoria, Australia; two descendants in Victoria have autosomal DNA matches with the compiler of this book.

1813. In 1813 Arthur and Jemima's daughter Charlotte White married Joseph Stuckey in Langport Parish. Their first son was named Arthur White Stuckey. Also in 1813 Arthur White married a second time, to widow Sarah Tutchin in Crewkerne Parish. Her maiden name was Cottell.

1829: On July 8, 1829 Arthur White, age 69, abode Kingsbury, was buried in Kingsbury Episcopi Parish.

Daughter Anna (Willy) Shepherd

Chronology

1768: Based upon Anna Willy's age at death appearing on a monument inscription at Kingsbury Episcopi church, she was born in the year 1768. (fn. 1) She was probably baptized at the Middle Lambrook Meeting by her parents Thomas and Jane, but baptism records for the Meeting are lost.

1794: On March 3, 1794 Anna Willy married William Shepherd at Kingsbury Episcopi; the marriage register was signed by William and Anna and also by witnesses William Pittard and John Shepherd. [Based upon William Shepard's age at death appearing on a monument inscription (fn. 1), he was born in 1761.]

Banns of Marriage Between William Shepherd and Anna Willy both of this Parish were published between 2 9 11 in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety four in pursuance of the Statute in that behalf made.

1795-1798: Son Thomas was born to Anna and William on January 1, 1795 and was baptized on July 15, 1812 at East Lambrook Chapelry of Kingsbury Episcopi Parish. Daughter Ann was born to them on July 9, 1796 and was baptized on July 15, 1812 at the Chapelry, and daughter Martha was born on June 18, 1789 and baptized on July 15, 1812 at the Chapelry. The birth dates are from the baptism records.

1800: Thomas Willy, in his August 7, 1800 Will (with August 8, 1800 Codicil), bequeathed £50 to his daughter Ann. Thomas also bequeathed and devised the rest, residue and remainder of his estate to his daughters Hannah Shepherd and Martha Willy. It was to be divided into two shares, with Martha's share to be £50 larger than Hannah's share because Hannah (also known as Ann & Anna) had been given a £50 bequest and Martha had not. Hannah and Martha were also made Executrices of the Thomas Willy estate. (fn. 2)

1801-1802: Anna and William's son John, identified by the monument inscription (fn. 2), was born about 1801. Their daughter Mary Ann was baptized on Dec. 27, 1802 at Kingsbury Episcopi.

1803: On December 16, 1803 Anna Shepherd was buried at Kingsbury Episcopi. She died on December 11.

A photograph of a handwritten inscription on a piece of aged, yellowed paper. The text is written in a cursive script and reads "Anna Wife of William Shepherd Dec 16".

1820: On August 6, 1820, William Shepherd, age 59, yeoman of Southay, who died "by Sudent (sic, sudden) Death at Petherton," was buried at Kingsbury Episcopi on August 9. No Will or estate administration has been found for William. East Lambrook tax lists through 1820 included Mr. William Shepherd, but then he was replaced by son Mr. Thomas Shepherd. William also was on the Stembridge tax lists through 1820.

Marriages of Anna and William's Children

Son Thomas and daughter Mary Ann married Cable siblings Elizabeth and William, children of John Cable (1777-1856) and Jessey Harding. John Cable was a son of John Cable (1738-1791) and his second wife Mary Gummer. Jane Cable, who married John Willy, was a daughter of John Cable and his first wife Elizabeth Good. John Cable, who died in 1856, was then a resident of Allegheny County, Pennsylvania.

Daughter Ann married Isaac Hayward in 1817, and daughter Martha married Joseph Warr in 1819. Son John did not marry.

A descendant of Ann Shepherd and Isaac Hayward has a small autosomal DNA match with the compiler of this book.

Son John Willy alias Archerd

Chronology

1760: John Willy (alias Archerd) was probably baptized at the Middle Lambrook Meeting by his parents Thomas and Jane Willy, but baptism records for most of the 1700's are lost. As explained in the Introduction, Y-DNA testing and triangulation proved in 2018 that John Willy was the same person as John Archerd. John Archerd's gravemarker at Monroe Presbyterian Cemetery (Clermont County, Ohio USA) provided a birth date of July 4, 1770 in "Somersetshire" but his marriage in 1788 was to a woman born in 1762. (fn. 1)

1788: On September 22, 1788 John Willy married Jane Cable in Lopen Parish, Somerset, Minister John Templeman officiating. The register was prepared by Mr. Templeman, who spelled John's surname as Willey (as he did in the banns record) but the register was signed by John as John Willy. Jane also signed the register, as did witnesses Anna Willy (John's sister) and William Shepherd, whom Anna would marry in 1794. [Jane Cable was baptized in Lopen Parish on October 4, 1762 by parents John and Elizabeth Cable.]

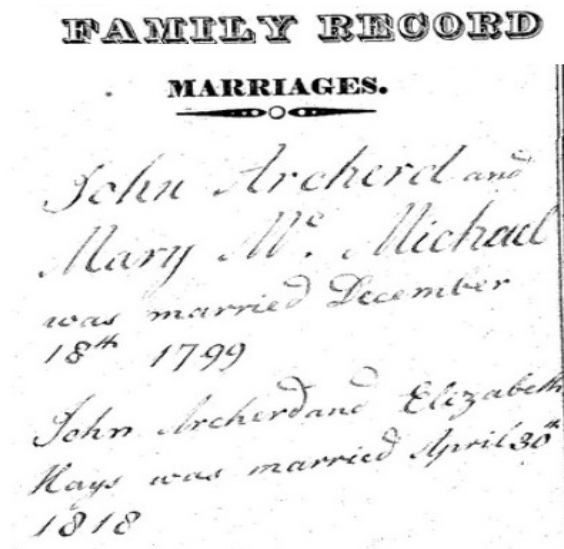

1792: Edward Willy was born to John and Jane in 1792, probably in Middle Lambrook (part of the Tything of East Lambrook).

1795: Mary Willy was born to John and Jane in 1795, probably in Middle Lambrook (part of the Tything of East Lambrook).

1797: About his year John Willy sailed to America and began to identify himself by the alias of John Archerd.

1799: On December 13, 1799 John Archerd married Mary McMichael in northern Kentucky or in the Northwest Territory (from which the State of Ohio was formed in 1803).

There is no evidence to indicate that John Willy and Jane Cable legally terminated their marriage prior to John's 1799 marriage to Mary McMichael, but Thomas Willy in his 1800 Will and Codicil mentioned only John's children Edward and Mary and not wife Jane.

1800: Thomas Willy, in his August 7, 1800 Will (with August 8, 1800 Codicil), bequeathed £100 to his "son John Willy (now in America)" on the condition that he would return to England and reside and settle in England before his youngest child attained the age of 23. If John did not meet the condition, then £60 would go to John's son Edward Willy (or his sister Mary if she survived Edward) and £40 to John's daughter Mary Willy (or her brother Edward if he survived Mary).

1818: On April 13, 1818 widower John Archerd married Elizabeth Hays in Clermont County, Ohio. John and Elizabeth had a son named Rufus in 1822. An 1863 photo of Rufus may resemble John Willy alias Archerd.

1830: Jane Willy was buried on Dec. 4, 1830 in Lopen Parish, age 69. (fn. 2)

1838: John Archerd died in 1838 in Clermont County, Ohio.

Edward Willy, Son of John and Jane

1792: Based upon Edward Willy's age at death appearing in his burial record, he was born in the year 1792. His parents were John & Jane (Cable) Willy. Edward was probably baptized at the Middle Lambrook Meeting but baptism records for most of the 1700's for the Meeting are lost.

1811: On May 11, 1811 Edward Willy and John Rowsell were witnesses to the marriage of John Trump of the first Battalion of the Somerset Militia and Mary Druce of Lopen Parish.

1822: On March 26, 1822 Edward Willy married Joanna Taylor in Lopen Parish. [Note: Joan Taylor was baptized in Kingsbury Episcopi on January 22, 1792 by parents Thomas and Joan.]

1823: On June 19, 1823 Edward and Joanna Willy baptized daughter Emily in Lopen Parish. The baptism register reported Edward as a manufacturer and the family abode as Lopen. On December 23, 1833, at age 10, Emily was buried in Lopen parish. She was the only child of Edward and Joanna.

1823: In 1823 the diary of Benjamin Hebditch mentioned "Mr. Edward Willy of White Cross Close."

1820-1829: Lopen land tax lists reported Edward as occupying property owned by his mother Jane Willy (assessment 0.13.5.)

1830-1831: Lopen land tax lists reported Edward Willy with an interest in several parcels of land. He was proprietor of one parcel and he was an occupier of two parcels, one owned by Thomas & Joan Denman and one by his mother (1830 only).

1831: The 1831 Will of Robert Rood Pittard named three executors & trustees, one of whom was Edward Willy, farmer of Lopen Parish. Pittard's widow was Edward's aunt Martha.

1832 and 1834: Voter's Lists - Edward Willy in Lopen Parish "lease for years of land."

1840: On March 26, 1840 Edward's wife Joanna, age 47, was buried in Lopen Parish.

1841: Edward Willy has not been located in the 1841 census.

1846: On February 25, 1846 Edward Willy, yeoman of Lopen Parish, made his last Will and Testament. (fn. 3)

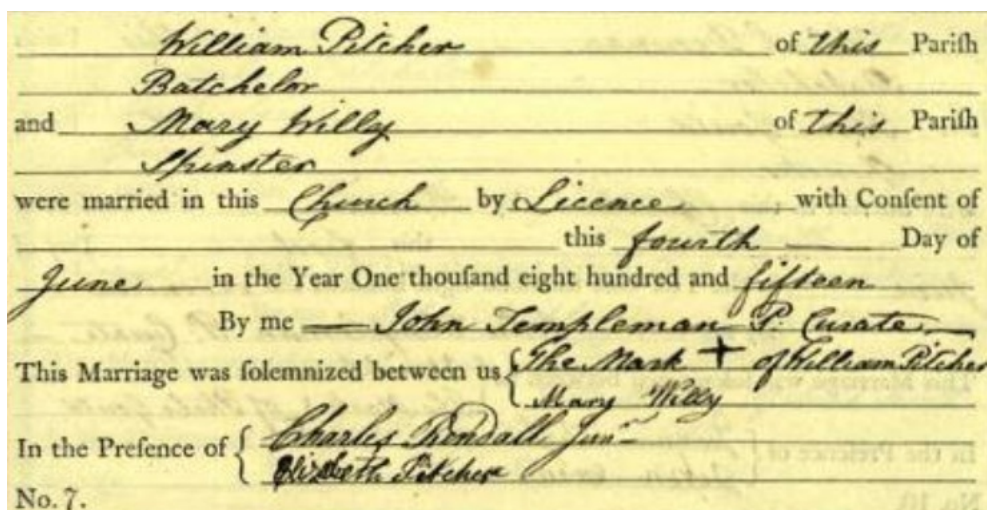

1846: On April 21, 1846 Edward Willy, 54, was buried in Lopen Parish.

1851: Edward's Will was proved on Nov. 4, 1851 in the Archdeacon Court of Taunton, Somerset. (fn. 3)

Mary (Willy) Pitcher, Daughter of John and Jane

1795: Based upon Mary Willy's age at death appearing in her burial record, she was born in the year 1795. Her parents were John & Jane (Cable) Willy. Mary was probably baptized at the Middle Lambrook Meeting but baptism records for most of the 1700's for the Meeting are lost.

1815: On June 4, 1815 Mary Willy married William Pitcher in Lopen Parish, by licence. [William Pitcher was baptized in Lopen Parish on March 16, 1788 by John and Anna Pitcher.]

1817-1832: Baptism records for Mary and William's children variously reported that William was a carter, and then a farmer or yeoman.

1832 and 1834: Voter's Lists - William Pitcher on Frog St. in Lopen Parish had a "lease for years of land."

1841: Census for Lopen, Somerset, on Frog Street: Wm Pitcher, 45, farmer; Mary, 45; Elizabeth, 15; Jane, 15; Anna, 14; William, 13; Susan, 10; and Edward, 6.

1851: Census for Lopen, Somerset: Wm. Pitcher, 60, farmer 30 acres, 2 laborers, born Lopen; wife Mary, 54, born East Lambrook; daughter Hannah, 26; son William, 24; daughter Jane, 28; daughter Susan, 20; and son Edward, 15. All the children were born in Lopen. [Note: the East Lambrook reference may mean "East Lambrook Tything" which includes Middle Lambrook.]

1851: On September 27, 1851 Mary Pitcher, age 56, was buried in Lopen Parish.

1854: On April 21, 1854 William Pitcher, yeoman of Lopen Parish, made his last Will and Testament. (fn. 4)

1854: On May 19 1854 William Pitcher, age 56, was buried in Lopen Parish.

1857: William Pitcher's Will was proved at London on August 18, 1857 and his son William Pitcher was confirmed as Executor. (fn. 4)

Mary and William Pitcher's children were: Mary (who married Benjamin Goodland in 1844); Elizabeth (who married John Bulgin in 1842); Jane Willy (who married George Mitchell in 1849); Hannah (who married William Shutler in 1852); William (who married Charlotte Barlow Fowler in 1857); Ann (who married Samuel Mitchell in 1857); Susan (who married Reuben Eason in 1852); Eliza (who died in 1834); and Edward. Most of the married children stayed in or near Lopen Parish, but Elizabeth, who married blacksmith John Bulgin, emigrated with her family to New South Wales, Australia in 1857. Edward Pitcher emigrated to Victoria, Australia in 1852 and Susan Eason to Victoria in 1868. A descendant of Elizabeth Bulgin has a small autosomal DNA match with the compiler of this book.

Footnotes:

1. The fact that John Willy's wife Jane Cable was born in 1762 may suggest that the birth date stated in the John Archerd gravemarker is not correct. The minimum marriage age in England in 1788 was 21 and parental consent was required to marry at a younger age (see Lord Harwicke's Act of 1753). The marriage register does not show any parental consent for John.

2. Lopen Parish land tax records from 1791-1830 show proprietor John Cable (Jane's father) and various occupiers of Cable's land, including Jno Gundry and G. Hext; and from 1793 until 1830 Jane Willy was also listed as a proprietor. In 1817 Edward Willy was the Lopen tax collector, and in 1818 he was the collector and the assessor. Edward occupied his mother Jane's land beginning in 1820, as did Jane's son-in-law William Pitcher.

3. Transcription of Edward Willy's 1846 Will:

Daughter Martha (Willy) Pittard

Chronology

1773: Based upon Martha Willy's age at death appearing in her burial record, she was born in the year 1773. She was probably baptized at the Middle Lambrook Meeting by her parents Thomas and Jane, but baptism records for most of the 1700's for the Meeting are lost.

1800: Thomas Willy, in his August 7, 1800 Will (with August 8, 1800 Codicil), bequeathed and devised the rest, residue and remainder of his estate to daughters Hannah Shepherd and Martha Willy. Hannah and Martha were the Executrices.

1800: On November 27, 1800 Martha married Robert Rood Pittard, a widower, at Kingsbury Episcopi. The register was signed by Robert and Martha and also by witnesses Ambrose Willy (her brother) and Robert Humphrey. [Robert was baptized on August 15, 1764 at Kingsbury Episcopi; he was a widower, and the proprietor of land in Stembridge beginning in 1793, according to land tax records.] (fn. 1)

1811: On October 3, 1811 Edward Berkeley Portman leased land located in Radwell Manor in Kingsbury Episcopi to gentleman Robert Rood Pittard of East Lambrook. (fn. 2)

1823: No baptism records have been located between 1800 and 1823 (when Martha turned 50) for children of Martha and Robert. Robert had a son Robert Sampson Rood Pittard and a daughter Ann Sampson Rood Pittard from his first marriage. (fn. 3)

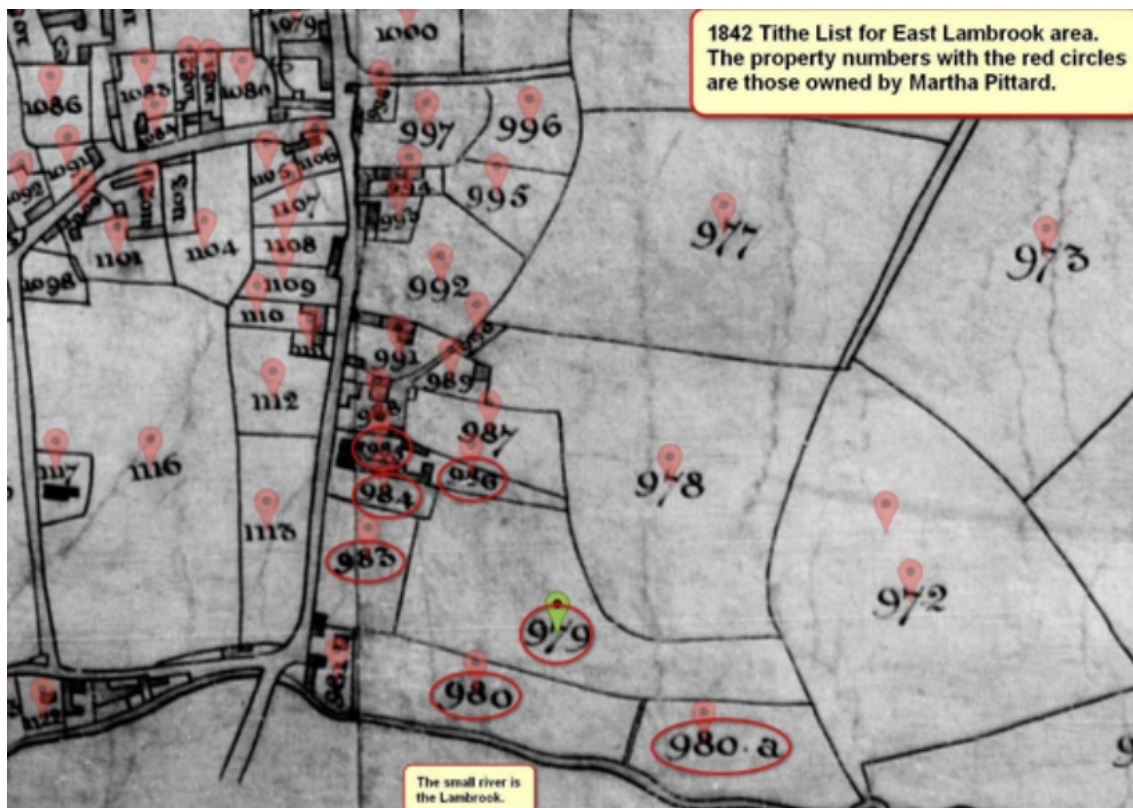

1831: Robert Rood Pittard made his last Will and Testament on Sept. 13, 1831, leaving bequests to his son Robert Sampson Rood Pittard, his wife Martha, his son-in-law George Horwood (husband of testator's daughter Ann), and to Edward Willy of Lopen. A trust with provisions for many persons was also established. (fn. 4) Robert Rood Pittard, abode E. Lambrook, age 67, was buried on March 22, 1832.

1831 & 1832: The East Lambrook land tax list for 1831 shows "Rob't Rood Pittard" (proprietor and occupier - 19.0). In 1832 the list for the same property indicates "Mrs Pittard" (proprietor and occupier of house and lands - 19.0).

1833: "Mrs. Robt Pittard of E. Lambrook was admitted as a member [of the Old Presbyterian Meeting, in South Petherton]." [Source: Diary of Benjamin Hebditch of South Petherton.]

1841: Census for East Lambrook, Kingsbury Episcopi: Martha Pittard (indexed Gillard by ancestry.com), 65, Ind [independent means], y [born in Somerset]; and servant Harriet Russell, 50, y. [Note: There is also a Martha Pittard in Stembridge; she was residing with spouse Robert Pittard [son of Martha's late husband and his first wife].

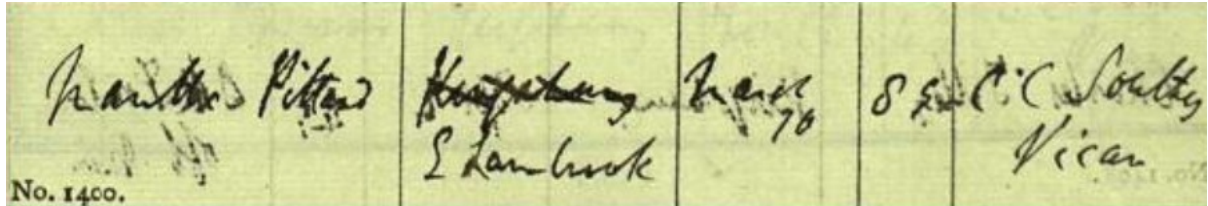

1851: Census for East Lambrook, Kingsbury Episcopi (Nth st & Sth st): Martha Pittard, widow, 78, land proprietor, born Kingsbury, with two servants. [Note:

The other Martha Pittard was also in the 1851 census, living in Stembridge. The census shows she was born in Curry Mallet.]

1861: Census for East Lambrook, on East Lambrook Road: Martha Pittard, widow, 88, landed proprietor, born Kingsbury, and two lodgers.

1862: On March 10, 1862 Martha Pittard, age 89, was buried at Kingsbury Episcopi.

Footnotes

1. Robert Pittard base son of Elizabeth Rood (and as supposed of Robert Pittard) was born at Radwell Manor, West Lambrook, Kingsbury Episcopi about the first half of August 1764, and he first married Mary Walters, of Kingsbury Episcopi, at Kingsbury Episcopi on April 22, 1784. [Source: Pages 243-244, The Pitar/Pitard/Pittards of the British Isles, Vol. 3, by Harold W. Pittard; copy at familysearch.org/books - FL8618347.2620642.03.pt01, and pt02).]

2. The land was Hole Meads (3 acres) and Sheepland (3 acres). [Somerset Archives, ref. #DD/PM/21/6/10.]

3. Robert Sampson Rood Pittard, son of Robert Rood Pittard and Mary Walters, became the occupier of the Stembridge property beginning about 1811.

4. Transcription of the September 13, 1831 last Will and Testament of Robert Rood Pittard: "This is the Last Will and Testament of me, Robert Rood Pittard of East Lambrook in the Parish of Kingsbury Episcopi in the County of Somerset, Yeoman, I give unto my son, Robert Sampson Rood Pittard, one guinea. I also give and forgive his, my said Son, a debt of five hundred pounds due and owing to me from his bond bearing date of the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and nine with all arrears of Interest thereupon (on the) condition, nevertheless, that he, my said Son, does not at any time interrupt or hinder my Trustees and Executors in the performance and execution of the Trusts of my Will nor disturb or dispute their right of title to any of the real or personal property of which I may die possessed. And in case he, my said Son, shall fail in the observance and performance of this condition in any respect, I direct my Trustees and Executors to sue him for the said debt so due on his Bond. I give and bequeath unto my Wife, Martha Pittard and to my son-in-law George Horwood of Pitney, Yeoman, and Edward Willy, of Lopen in the same county of Somerset, farmer, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, all my money and securities for money, live and dead stock, household goods and furniture, plate, linen and china, and all other my personal estate whatsoever (except my Leasehold Lands), In Trust that they, my said Trustees or the Survivors or Survivor of them of the Executors, Administrators or Assigns of such survivor ... shall as soon as conveniently possible after my decease call in and compel payment of all debts and monies due and owing to me ... In Trust that they, my said Trustees ... do and shall pay and satisfy my funeral expenses and the expenses of proving and establishing this my Will and all such debts as shall be due ... In Trust that they, my said Trustees ... shall pay and apply the residue of the rents, issues and profits of my said freehold and leasehold, messuages, lands and premises after deducting the weekly sum of one guinea [to be given his widow Martha] and after her death to my two grandsons, Robert Sampson Rood Pittard and Simon Sampson Rood Pittard, sons of my son Robert Sampson Rood Pittard and to my two granddaughters, Mary Horwood and Ann Pittard Horwood, daughters of my deceased daughter Ann Sampson Rood Pittard [married name Horwood (widow of George Horwood of Pitney)] for and during their natural lives equally to be divided between them, share and share alike ... And in case all four of my grandchildren shall happen to die without issue, then I give the share of him, her or them to ... the children of my sister Betty, the deceased wife of James Humphrys, and Bella, the wife of Thomas Davis, equally to be shared between them, share and share alike ... But in case any or either of my said nephews or nieces shall happen to die without lawful issue, then I give the share or shares of him her or them to Robert Rood Pittard ...." [On September 20, 1832, Robert Foster, the surrogate for the Chancellor of the Cathedral Church of Wells, certified that the Will of Robert Rood Pittard was proved and registered. Administration of the Will was granted to "Martha Pittard, widow of the deceased, George Horwood and Edward Willy, the joint Executors-in-Trust named in the said Will ...." A new nonconformist chapel called Middle Lambrook Meeting was completed in 1729 in the tiny village of Middle Lambrook located in the Parish of Kingsbury Episcopi in Somerset, England. The location of the village is visible of the map on the front cover.

Thomas Willy, yeoman, was an elder of the Meeting during the latter part of the 1700's. He made a Will and Codicil in August 1800, and died the same month. The Will mentioned son John "in America" as well as his other nine children.

John "in America" used the alias of John Archerd.
